SE is 120 in the upper room or the 3,000 penitents at Pentecost, who carried the Gospel to the Mediterranean peoples facting everywhere a ghastly heathenism? Who spread Chistianity over three continents in three centuries, who reformed the faith of Europe and brought back the primitive faith? Who built the Cathedrals? Who were the Puritans, who were the Pligrims and their successors who pledged this mighty nation to God in its very cradie? We have long forgotten but their lames are written in Heaven. Who were the faithful few who keep the lights burning and carry these great breadths of Christian service in communities and Christian service in communities and Christian countries and do not shrink from plunging into the heart of the world's dark heathenism? They may be unknown but their names are written in Heaven. The names of the United States, starting from Connecticut.
